Policy: INM Website Privacy

Effective date: June 2006

Thank you for visiting the Informed Notaries of Maine (INM) Website. Information collected or stored is used to improve the content of our web page or advance INM's objectives. The following summarizes our privacy policy and practices:

- INM does not automatically gather any personal information from you, such as your name, phone number, E-mail address, or mailing address. This information is only obtained if you supply it voluntarily for a specific activity within the site and solely for the purposes of that activity.
- Any personal information you provide is otherwise protected. This means that, at the point of collection, you will be informed that your personal information is being collected, the purpose for which it is being collected and that you have a right of access to the information.
- INM uses software that receives and records the Internet Protocol (IP) address of the computer that has contacted our Website. We do not attempt to link these addresses with the identity of individuals visiting our site.
- INM does not use "cookies" to track how visitors use our site.
- Visitor information is not disclosed to anyone except to INM Directors who need the information.
- INM is not responsible for the content or the privacy policies of the websites to which it links.
